The 18th Annual Macon Gardens Mansions & Moonlight

April 29 – May 1, 2011
Macon, Georgia

Enchanting Secret Gardens and delightful Moonlight Tours await your discovery during Macon Gardens, Mansions & Moonlight. Recently named one of the Top 20 Events in the Southeast by the Southeast Tourism Society, this premier home and garden event, now in its 18th year, will be hosted by Hay House April 29-May 1, 2011 in historic Macon, Georgia.

Amble at your leisure through blooming private gardens in the Ridge Avenue area during the ever-popular Secret Garden Tour. On Friday and Saturday evenings, the Moonlight Tour offers guests romantic garden strolls at twilight and visits to home interiors as well. During the weekend, ticketholders will receive a complimentary tour of Hay House, the Italian Renaissance Revival mansion (1855-59) that is often called The Palace of the South! This National Historic Landmark is renowned for its decorative arts and technological innovations, such as indoor plumbing, a speaker tube system, heating and ventilation systems. You will not want to miss seeing the Dining Room, newly restored to the Johnston era (c.1870s) during your visit!

Free Garden Market

Nestled among historic magnolias and camellias, the Garden Market returns to the beautiful lawn of Hay House in the heart of downtown Macon. Browse charming vendor booths for flowering plants and trees, perennials, garden and patio accessories, birdhouses, home accents, and much more!

Garden Market Hours:

Friday and Saturday, 10 am - 5 pm and Sunday 1 pm - 5 pm

FREE Gardening Seminars!

Mark your calendars now to attend entertaining and informative talks during the Garden Market Seminars. The 2011 Keynote Speaker is James T. Farmer III. Visit: www.jamesfarmer.com for great ideas for spring! All seminars are held on the ground floor of Hay House.

Saturday, April 30 at 11 am
From Garden to Kitchen to Table: Food and Flowers for Living

Sunday, May 1 at 2 pm:
Hydrangeas Galore! Hydrangeas for Every Day of the Year
