

KWT presents . . .
Insider's view of desert
Wonderland City

Palm Springs

November 1-4, 2010

The fun and success of our past trips to special USA cities such as the Hamptons, Natchez and Santa Fe tours has inspired Ken Ward to design an exclusive Georgia Trust behind-the-scenes visit to one of America's most unique cities, Palm Springs. Both its scenery and the privacy has attracted celebrities and charmed generations of the rich and famous. We will focus on the horticultural and architectural beauty of the area with entrée to the social history and private homes.

How can one city combine the beauty of nature with the allure of nightlife? It's possible in Palm Springs. A city that once hosted glittering Hollywood celebrities, today's Palm Springs is experiencing a renaissance, catering to a new breed of famous, elite and those seeking fun and recreation. Join our select group for a look at this unexplored city-in-the desert.

Arrangements are being made to meet local personalities, tour museum with the Director and view fabulous private homes with a lifestyle guide to introduce our privileged group to the social style of this uncharted city. Reserve your space now! The cut-off number is set at only 21 people.
