

Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation
Guest Certification and Release of Liability during COVID-19 outbreak

The undersigned, _____, attendee or vendor of Santa at Rhodes Hall does hereby attest that he/she has read the State of Georgia's Executive Order as it is in effect of the date of signing this certification and release and the CDC Guidelines for Events and Gatherings and does hereby agree to abide by the terms of these documents and by any such policies and procedures of the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation as they are developed.

The undersigned does also agree to release and forever hold harmless the Georgia Trust for any claims of liability arising from any illness contracted or thought to be contracted at Santa at Rhodes Hall.

The undersigned does hereby agree to have their temperature detected and attests that he/she has not had a fever without taking medication to reduce fever during that time for 7 days at over 100.4 degrees before attending Santa at Rhodes Hall.

The undersigned does also agree that if he/she becomes ill, develops a fever of above 100.4 degrees or otherwise develops symptoms including sore throat, cough, fatigue, etc. then he/she will return home immediately and consult a qualified medical opinion.

The undersigned does hereby agree to stay at least 6 (six) feet away from all other persons on the premises and wearing approved masks.

The undersigned does further agree to abide by other policies and guidelines developed by the State of Georgia, the CDC and the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation while attending Santa at Rhodes Hall.

Attendee name _____

Today's Date _____